How to Raise a Feminist Son
Sonora Jha

Motherhood, Masculinity, and the Making of My Family

From teaching consent to counteracting problematic messages from the media, well-meaning family, and the culture at large, we have big work to do when it comes to our boys. This empowering book offers much-needed insight and actionable advice. It’s also a beautifully written and deeply personal story of struggling, failing, and eventually succeeding at raising a feminist son.

Informed by the author’s work as a professor of journalism specializing in social justice movements and social media, as well as by conversations with psychologists, experts, and other parents and boys, this book follows one mother’s journey to raise a feminist son as a single immigrant woman of color in America. Through stories from her own life and wide-ranging research, Sonora Jha shows us all how to be better teachers of the next generation of men in this electrifying tour de force.

Includes chapter takeaways and an annotated bibliography of reading and watching recommendations for adults and children.

SONORA JHA, PHD, is an essayist, novelist, researcher, and professor of journalism at Seattle University. She is the author of the novel Foreign, and her op-eds and essays have appeared in the New York Times, the Seattle Times, The Establishment, DAME, and in several anthologies. She teaches writing for Hugo House, Hedgebrook Writers’ Retreat, and Seattle Public Library. She grew up in Mumbai and lives in Seattle.

VEGETARIAN CHINESE SOUL FOOD

Deliciously Doable Ways to Cook Greens, Tofu, and Other Plant-Based Ingredients

Hsiao-Ching Chou

85 delicious and approachable recipes for Chinese vegetarian cooking from the author of Chinese Soul Food.

Hsiao-Ching Chou adds to her repertoire with recipes for stir-fries, rice and noodle dishes, soups, braises, and pickles. And then there are the dumplings! The book wouldn’t be complete without vegetarian versions of Chou’s famously delicious dumplings, including soup dumplings, as well as other dim sum delights. Separate chapters feature egg and tofu recipes too. With dishes like Flaky Ribbon Pancakes, Hong Kong–Style Crispy Noodles, Hot-and-Sour Soup, and Kung Pao Tofu Puffs, these recipes—created specifically for home cooks—will satisfy every craving for your Chinese-food favorites.

HSIAO-CHING CHOU is the author of Chinese Soul Food. She teaches Chinese home cooking at schools in the Seattle area and on YouTube, and she is known for her always-sold-out pot sticker classes. Currently she serves as chair of the James Beard Foundation’s Book Awards committee. Chou has been on American Public Media’s The Splendid Table, the PBS documentary The Meaning of Food, and the Travel Channel’s Anthony Bourdain: No Reservations. She lives in Seattle with her family.

LOW SODIUM, BIG FLAVOR
115 Recipes for Pantry Staples and Daily Meals

Lara Ferroni

On a low-sodium diet and tired of eating bland food? These 115 recipes for daily meals and pantry staples taste good!

To stick with a low-sodium diet long-term, you want to savor the food you’re eating, which means finding new ways to replace the flavors that salt naturally highlights. These recipes are easy to prepare and pack a powerful flavor punch with ingredients and spices besides salt. Homemade condiments, spice blends, dressings, cheeses, breads, prepared meats, and other foods are all designed to excite the taste buds while keeping salt to a minimum. Daily meal plans—breakfast, lunch, dinner, and even dessert—all contain less than 1,800 mg of sodium, typically the daily amount recommended for a low-sodium diet.

AGATES OF THE OREGON COAST
THE PACIFIC CREST TRAIL
A Visual Compendium
Joshua M. Powell
The Pacific Crest Trail as you’ve never seen it before!
A visual feast for the senses, this highly designed paperback showcases the PCT through clever infographics, modern illustration, and insightful text. The book captures both the grandeur of the West Coast as well as the minutia that thru-hiker Joshua Powell notices and experiences during a 140-day, 2,650-mile trek from Mexico to Canada—everything from trail markers and extreme weather to the stories behind popular toponyms and the songs stuck in a hiker’s head. An ideal gift for PCT alum, outdoor enthusiast, or armchair hiker.

JOSHUA M. POWELL began taking longer and longer trips into the backcountry before deciding to hike the Pacific Crest Trail from Mexico to Canada. He has worked in book design and production, receiving first place in the New York Book Show and the Gold Award in the PubWest Book Design Awards. He currently lives in Spokane, Washington.

HOUSE LESSONS
Renovating a Life
Erica Bauermeister

From the New York Times–bestselling author of The Scent Keeper, a Reese’s Book Club pick, comes a memoir about the power of home—and the transformative act of restoring one house in particular.

In a seaside Pacific Northwest town, an old, trash-filled house waits for someone to rescue it. Fifty miles away, a woman believes that her marriage and family could use some renovations of their own. This insightful memoir-in-essays tells the story of how house and woman save each other and, in the process, illuminates the ways our spaces subliminally affect us. A personal exploration of the psychology of architecture, House Lessons is also a loving tribute to the connections we forge with the homes we care for and live in.

OUR SHED

A Father-Daughter Building Story

Robert Broder
illustrated by Carrie O’Neill

A sweet, nostalgic father-daughter story, Our Shed celebrates DIY families as well as the unique creativity and spontaneity of each individual child.

This lovely story is about a father teaching his daughter how to build a backyard shed for storing the necessities of family life—a lawn mower, sprinkler, sleds, kid toys. For each practical element the dad brings to the project, his daughter adds her own imaginative, creative spin. In the end, they are both happy with their collaboration.

Kids love tools, building things, and spending time with parents. This story hits all those points with love and humor.

ROBERT BRODER is the publisher of Ripple Grove Press. His passion for children’s picture books goes back to when he was a pre-K teacher, reading books and making up stories for the kids. He currently lives in Vermont with his wife, daughter, their dog, and two cats.

Barbara Davis-Pyles
illustrated by Justin Hilgrove

Ahoy! Set sail with Cliff and his sidekick, Polly, as they tackle their dream of becoming pirates.

A silly and original story by Barbara Davis-Pyles, author of Grizzly Boy and Stubby the Fearless Squid, about a troll named Cliff who isn’t very good at sitting still or being a “proper” troll. He’d much rather be a pirate anyway! “Ahoy!” he shouts upon meeting other trolls, who then remind him that the proper troll hello is “Go away!” After a report card full of Fs in bridge building, stoney staring, and even goat gobbling (he’s a vegetarian!), Cliff sets off for pirate school. But are things different for him there? Aye, that they arrrre!
OLLIE FEELS FINE

Discover our three distinct imprints, each part of Sasquatch Books—one of the country’s leading boutique presses—located in downtown Seattle.

SASQUATCH BOOKS

Our innovative, eclectic list of nonfiction includes beautiful, inspiring lifestyle books on topics such as cooking, gardening, crafts, home decor, nature, and more, as well as narrative nonfiction spanning memoir, history, and social science. We also publish select journals, workbooks, and stationery products.

LITTLE BIGFOOT

From board books to picture books to fascinating nonfiction for older readers, our beautifully crafted children’s books feature the animals, people, and landscapes that define the Northwest and inspire young readers from babies to age ten to experience the world around them and foster a lifelong love of reading.

SPRUCE BOOKS

Our gift book imprint for teens, Spruce Books focuses on self-expression and personal growth. Titles include journals, quote collections, workbooks, and more. They are inspiring, practical, meaningful, and giftable—perfect for tweens, teens, and twentysomethings who want to create positive change in themselves and the world around them.
